Teen Read Week:
Theme:
"Unleash Your Story"
October 8–14, 2017

Teen Read Week™ is a national adolescent literacy initiative created by the Young Adult Library Services Association (YALSA). It began in 1998 and is held annually in October the same week as Columbus Day. Its purpose is to encourage teens to be regular readers and library users.

The 2017 event will be held Oct. 8 - 14th, featuring the theme "Unleash Your Story". Library staff, afterschool providers, and educators are encouraged to leverage this theme to encourage teens to tell their own stories as well as find stories, biographies, autobiographies, folktales, and more in their local library. Join the conversation on Twitter with #TRW17.

Storybook Time
for ages three through six
Mondays at 10:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

At Storybook Time, we sing a few songs, read two or more picture books and make a craft. We will read the same books at 10:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Here is what we have planned for this month:

October 2 – Nanette's mom sends her to the bakery to buy a baguette. It smells wonderful! Can Nanette resist eating it on the way home? (Not a chance.) We'll witness poor Nanette's plight in Nanette's Baguette by Mo Willems.

October 9 – The library will be closed in observance of Columbus Day.

October 16 – It's Farm/City Festival day at the Bartlett Ranch in Pike Road, which means we will NOT have a 4:30 p.m. session of Storybook Time today because we want you to go to the Farm/City Festival instead. However, the 10:30 a.m. session will carry on with some farm-themed stories including Mrs. Wishy-Washy's Farm by Joy Cowley and Elizabeth Fuller.

October 23 – It's almost Halloween, which is Mister Matt's favorite holiday. That's why we'll start observing Halloween a bit early this week by pretending to be monsters when we read If You're a Monster and You Know It by Rebecca and Ed Emberley.

October 30 – It's Halloween Eve! We'll enjoy some not-so-spooky stories including Big Pumpkin by Erica Silverman and S.D. Schindler.

Toddler Time
for age one through three
Wednesdays at 10 a.m.

At Toddler Time, we sing songs, recite nursery rhymes and read one story each week. The dates will be:

October 4
October 11
October 18
October 25

Book Clubs

Book Maniahs - for children in third grade and up –
On Wednesday, October 11 at 4:15 p.m., the Maniahs will discuss The Last Battle by C.S. Lewis.

Publisher's Summary – During the last days of Narnia, the land faces its fiercest challenge—not an invader from without but an enemy from within. Lies and treachery have taken root, and only the king and a small band of loyal followers can prevent the destruction of all they hold dear in this, the magnificent ending to The Chronicles of Narnia.

Bookies – The Pike Road Bookies meet on the third Thursday of each month, except December.

–On Thursday, October 19 at 11:15 a.m., they will discuss First Women by Kate Anderson Brower.

Publisher's Summary – One of the most underestimated—and challenging—positions in the world, the First Lady of the United States must be many things: an inspiring leader with a forward-thinking agenda of her own; a savvy politician, skilled at navigating the treacherous rapids of Washington; a wife and mother operating under constant scrutiny; and an able CEO responsible for the smooth operation of countless services and special events at the White House. Now, as she did in her smash #1 bestseller The Residence, former White House correspondent Kate Andersen Brower draws on a wide array of untapped, candid sources—from residence staff and social secretaries to friends and political advisers—to tell the stories of the ten remarkable women who have defined that role since 1960.

Friends of the Pike Road Branch Library Meeting

On Thursday, October 19 at 10 a.m., the Friends of the Pike Road Branch Library hold their monthly meeting to discuss how they support the library. Please join them!

Title: What the Dead Know

Author: Laura Lippman

Description: Thirty years ago, the Bethany girls, ages eleven and fifteen, disappeared from a Baltimore shopping mall. They never returned, their bodies were never recovered, and only painful questions remain. Now, in the aftermath of a rush-hour hit-and-run accident, a clearly disoriented woman is claiming to be Heather, the younger Bethany sister. Not a shred of evidence supports her story, and every lead she reluctantly offers takes the police to another dead end—a dying, incoherent man; a razed house; a missing grave. But she definitely knows something about that terrible day—and about the shocking fissures that the tragedy exposed in the foundation of a seemingly solid family.

ACTIVITY: Students will make a dog out of the letter D

October 11 @ 1:45 1st Grade

BOOK: "Chicken Little" by Rebecca Emberley

Synopsis - BONK! An award-winning father-daughter team make the sky fall an entirely new way. You may already know the tale of a not-quite-so-bright little chicken whose encounter with an acorn and gravity convinces him the sky is falling, but you've never seen the story told this way. A brilliant collaboration brings us a bold and colorful retelling of the classic tale, as crazy-eyed Chicken and all his panicked friends run away from the sky and right into an eye-catching gatefold surprise.

ACTIVITY: Questions and Answers

ACTIVITY: Students will color Curious George color sheets

October 24 @ 11:15 Pre-K

BOOK: “One Witch” by Laura Leuck

Synopsis - One witch, on a hill, had an empty pot to fill. So what does that one witch do? She goes around to visit all her fiendish friends, naturally; two cats, three scarecrows, four goblins, five vampires, six mummies, seven owls, eight ghosts, nine skeletons, and ten werewolves. At every stop they contribute ghoulishly tasty ingredients until the witch has enough to make a properly gruesome stew for her party. Then, of course, she must send out her invitations; to the ten werewolves, nine skeletons, eight ghosts, seven owls, six mummies... Count up and count down again as one witch gets ready for a fun-filled monster bash. Come along, they've got a special surprise waiting just...FOR...YOU!

ACTIVITY: Make Pumpkins out of paper plates

October 25 @ 1:45 1st Grade

BOOK: “On Halloween Night” by Ferida Wolff

Synopsis - In this spellbinding counting rhyme, one witch, two cats, three owls, and other assorted creatures of the night add up to one mysterious Halloween. It's just enough to give gentle jitters to young readers counting their way from one to thirteen on their way through the haunted woods.

ACTIVITY: Students will make a Halloween craft

October 26 @ 12:00 3rd Grade

BOOK: “The Horrible Spookhouse” by Kicki Stridh

Synopsis - A little girl lost in the woods wanders into a haunted house, where she disappoints the witches, monsters, and other inhabitants because she refuses to be frightened of them.

ACTIVITY: Students will make a Halloween craft

October 31 @ 11:15 Pre-K

BOOK: “Scaredy-Cat, Splat!” by Rob Scotton

Synopsis - It's Halloween, and Splat is determined to be the scariest cat in the class. Unfortunately, he's just too much of a scaredy-cat. He's afraid of a little spider, and everyone says his costume looks more silly than scary. And when Mrs. Wimpydimple tells a ghost story in the dark, Splat gets so frightened that he tips over his jack-o'-lantern. But when the lights go back on, the entire class is scared silly by a small, black, furry creature with a big pumpkin head. Whooooo can it be?

ACTIVITY: Students will make Halloween scary hands

Governor’s Square Book Bunch Book Club
October 11 @ 2:00 p.m.

October is Mystery Month, and Book bunch will discuss the latest Carolyn Haines’ novel, Ham Bones: A Southern Belle Mystery

Book Jacket Summary: Zinnia is abuzz: displaced from its New Orleans venue, a red-hot touring production of Cat on a Hot Tin Roof is opening right in the heart of town, featuring hunky star Graf Milieu! While most folks are excited, Sara Booth, who had her own brief stint on the Great White Way---on the arm of Milieu himself—is less than thrilled. Graf is now linked with his costar, Renata Trovaioli, a dyed-in-the-wool diva who plans to ride Graf’s coattails all the way to Hollywood. But Renata’s trip to the top comes to a screeching halt on the play’s second night, when someone laces her lipstick with cyanide. The plot thickens when Renata’s brother arrives on the scene and makes it clear exactly who he thinks the killer is. It seems Renata was stirring up plenty of drama behind the scenes, making enemies galore: her long-suffering makeup artist, an extremely harsh critic, an angry audience member...even boy toy Graf had a motive. But the most damning evidence points to Sarah Booth herself, and before she can say Big Daddy, she’s topping Sheriff Coleman’s list of suspects. Will Sarah get herself out of this mess? Come join us on October 11 to find out.

October 5- Five Little Monkeys Trick or Treat by Eileen Christelow: Five little monkeys dress up for Halloween. They are going trick-or-treating with their favorite babysitter, Lulu. “Don’t lose the rascals!” Mama tells her. But soon those mischievous monkeys meet their friends and decide to try “the best Halloween trick ever!” Will Lulu be fooled? Or will those rascals get tricked by their own monkey business? Craft: Children will create a monkey mask.

October 12- Monsters Eat Whiny Children by Bruce Eric Kaplan: This cautionary tale about whiny children being eaten by monsters is upended when the monsters cannot decide how best to prepare their meal. A whiny child salad doesn't work because there's paprika in the dressing. A whiny child cake won't do because the flour spills all over the floor. Whiny child burgers are out of the question because the grill is too hard to light. When the persnickety monsters finally decide that whiny child cucumber sandwiches are the perfect solution, their whiny children have escaped. At least the children have learned their lesson...for now. Craft: Children will color/decorate monsters they can decide between coloring pages or mask option.

October 19- The Berenstain Bears and the Spooky Old Tree by Stan and Jan Berenstain: Three brave little bears explore the inside of a mysterious old tree and go into, up, over, down, and out. Craft: Children will create a spooky tree using paper brown bag; the children will have the option to paint the tree as scary as they wish.

October 26- The Big Pumpkin by Erica Silverman: A witch on Halloween struggles to free a pumpkin from the vine. As she tries she is helped by various characters throughout the book. Craft: Children will design/decorate a pumpkin mask.

October 31- Tuesday Halloween Day by Anne Rockwell: It's Halloween and there's a party at school. This diverse group of preschoolers wears an equally varied set of costumes 'from pirates to clowns to firefighters. Everyone's ready for their tricks and treats 'they could start the party if only their missing teacher would return. Where could Mrs. Madoff have gone, and who is the mysterious fairy godmother who keeps following them around? Crafts: Participating children will receive a Halloween candy bag that he/she can decorate.

Chasing Down a Dream by Beverly Jenkins

There's never a dull day in Henry Adams, Kansas. Tamar July has never had a great relationship with certain members of her family. In fact, she'd characterize it as a “hate/hate relationship.” But when her cousin calls her with the news that she's dying and wants Tamar to plan the funeral, she's shocked but is willing to drop everything for her. After a horrendous storm, Gemma finds a young boy and his little sister walking on the side of the road. She takes them in, and quickly falls in love with the orphaned siblings. But when Gemma contacts Social Services to try to become their foster mother, she's told a white woman cannot foster African-American children. In the midst of these trials, Jack and Rocky are trying to plan their wedding. The entire town comes together to lend a helping hand. Though the residents of Henry Adams face seemingly insurmountable obstacles, each of them will discover that family comes in many forms, especially during the most trying of times. ~ Review taken from Amazon.com

October 6: Library and Book Usage Rules

Never Let a Ghost Borrow Your Library Book by Karen Casale

The Library Secret Service (L.S.S.) teaches children how to take care of books. One very important rule is to never let a Ghost borrow your library book. "Ghosts have a habit of disappearing."

It's A Book! by Lane Smith

There is a donkey, mouse, and monkey that are sitting down.

The donkey is using his tablet while monkey and mouse are reading books. Donkey keeps asking, "Can your book do this?" Monkey keeps saying, "No, it's a book."

The Library Ghost by Carole Boston

There is a ghost that visits this library and she has some unfinished business. Come figure out what it is and what happens at the end of the book.

Activity: Paper Reading People

October 13: Fire Safety Week

(The fire department will be here to talk and demonstrate fire safety.)

The Firefighters by Sue Whiting

Mrs. Irvin's Class is pretending to be firefighters. Have you ever pretended that you were a firefighter? What do you do when the bell rings at the fire station?

Going to the Firehouse by Mercer Mayer

Little Critter's Class is taking a field trip to the Fire Station. Have you ever been to the Fire Station? Do you know how to "Stop, Drop and Roll"?

Activity: Fire hats

October 20: College Football Team Spirit Day

(Please wear your favorite college team colors)

Counting with Big Al by Sherri Graves Smith

Big Al knows how to count. Can you count with Big Al by using football terms? (Roll-Tide-Roll)

Aubie's Game Day Rules by Sherri Graves Smith

Aubie teaches how to be polite and to use good manners in order to have fun at an Auburn Football Game. If you follow the rules in the book you are sure to have a wonderful time no matter which team you are rooting for at the game or any game. (War-Eagle)

Activity: Create a football

October 27: Dress Up Day

(Today is the annual dress-up and walk around the Library in your costume parade.)

Scaredy-Cat Splat by Rob Scotton

Splat is so determined to try and win the scariest costume at school. He tries to be a witch but his broom breaks. He tries to be a spider but two of his friends are much scarier than him. What happens when his teacher tells a Ghost Story? Who wins the scariest costume?

Dem Bones by Bob Barner

This is an old folk song that teaches children about how their bones are connected. It's a great way to get them to remember that your "leg bone is connected to the knee the bone."

10 Trick-or-Treaters: A Halloween Counting Book by Janet Schulman

It begins with 10 Trick or Treaters and then one gets frighten and then there are 9. This book teaches children how to count backwards or from ten to none by using rhyme.

Activity: Dress up Parade

Lap Sit Time @ Lowder Every Thursday @ 10:00 a.m.

October 5

Humpty Dumpty by Child's Play International Ltd.

Humpty Dumpty uses rhyming words throughout the book. This particular book teaches sign language.

Roar! Roar! by Lane Smith

This book teaches children about the sense of feel. It also teaches about the different animals using pictures of the grown-up and the Baby animal.

October 12

Who Can Jump? by Sebastien Braun

In Who Can Jump? open the flaps to read about the different animals that can jump. Can you jump?

October 19

I Love You, Little Pumpkin! by Sandra Magsamen

The little children hiding throughout the book are dressed up in different animal costumes. There is a special person hiding at the end of the book. Is it you?

October 26

Where is Baby's Pumpkin? by Karen Katz

This "lift-the-flap book" has a child dressed up as a cat looking for her pumpkin. Can you help the baby in the story find where the pumpkin is hiding?

Lap Sit Time is geared towards babies ages 0-1. However, everyone is always welcome to join us.
